SECONDED NATIONAL EXPERTS TO THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Directorate general: Directorate: Unit: Head of Unit: Telephone: Number of available post: Category Suggested taking up duty: Suggested initial duration: Place of secondment: Specificities:	Budget Own Resources, Evaluation and Financial Programming Control of Traditional Own Resources and Assistance to the Candidate Countries Jose Madeira +32 2 29 65 440 1 Administrator (AD) 4th Quarter 2014¹ 2 year(s)¹ Bruxelles <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> None / <input type="checkbox"/> COST-FREE This vacancy notice is also open to <input type="checkbox"/> the following third countries: <input type="checkbox"/> the following intergovernmental organisations:

1 Nature of the tasks:

The main task of the unit "Control of traditional own resources and assistance to candidate countries" is the verification of Member State's compliance with Community requirements for the correct, complete and timely collection of traditional own resources (mainly customs duties collected by Member States' customs authorities) that are made available for financing the EU budget.

This post offers an excellent opportunity to become familiar with the EU's financing and in particular with the system of traditional own resources.

The national expert will take part in the unit's monitoring of Member States' recovery of traditional own resources. The job includes the participation in the examination of individual cases, preparation of Commission's positions and their administrative and financial follow-up, as well as the preparation of general analysis and reports on the recovery of traditional own resources. Moreover, s/he will also have the possibility to work in other areas of the unit, e.g. assisting in the on-the-spot inspections to Member States and in the follow-up of the Court of Auditor's findings concerning traditional own resources. The job involves frequent contacts with other Commission services and Member States' representatives.

Suggested initial duration:	1 year¹
Place of secondment:	Bruxelles
Specificities:	None

1	Nature of the tasks:
We are the Pharma and health unit responsible for the enforcement of EC competition law (antitrust) to the pharmaceutical sector. Our main focus is now to develop leading precedents for this sector that is of great importance for consumers and public budgets. Many of the cases are at the crossroad of competition law and intellectual property rights and therefore intellectually very stimulating. In addition we are contributing to the policy discussions following the conclusion of the sector inquiry. While we are a hard working team, we also care about our very pleasant work environment. The work involves frequent contacts with companies and their legal and economic advisors, national authorities and other Commission services, and therefore also requires good communication skills. The official will furthermore have the opportunity to participate in horizontal policy and practice development projects within the specific areas covered by the unit.

2	Main qualifications:
We are looking for a national official with prior antitrust experience, ideally an outstanding lawyer or economist with some knowledge about the pharmaceutical sector, but we are open to other qualified applications. The new colleague will be responsible for handling investigations and other matters attributed to him/her. In the case-related work the colleague will be responsible for all stages of an investigation from creation to its conclusion. We often work in teams across different educational and national backgrounds, which requires openness, flexibility and a good sense of humour.

a) Eligibility criteria

The following eligibility criteria are to be fulfilled by the candidate in order to be seconded to the Commission. Consequently, the candidate who does not fulfil one of them will be automatically eliminated from the selection process.

- Professional experience : at least three years' experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which can be regarded as equivalent to those of function groups AD;
- Seniority : at least one year by your employer, that is having worked for an eligible employer (as described in Art. 1 of the SNE decision) on a permanent or contract basis for at least 12 months before the secondment;
- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU official languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU official language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. An SNE from a non-member country must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one Community language necessary for the performance of his duties.

b) Selection criteria

- diploma: As indicated a university degree or equivalent in law and/or economics enabling the candidate to deal with complex competition law issues would be ideal, but we are also open to candidates with a background in natural sciences, if it is accompanied with an openness to legal and economic questions.

- professional experience: Professional experience in the field of competition policy, preferably in antitrust, is essential to be operational quickly. She/he should also have good analytical and drafting skills, a strong sense of initiative and the ability to work both autonomously and in a team.

- language(s) necessary for the performance of duties:

A very good command of English – orally and in writing – is essential. Good knowledge of French would be useful. Knowledge of other languages will be an advantage.

3 Submission of applications and selection procedure

Candidates should send their application according to the Europass CV format (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>) in English, French or German only to the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of their country, which will forward the applications to the competent services of the Commission within the deadline fixed by the latter. Not respecting this procedure or deadlines will automatically invalidate the application.

Candidates are required not to add other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage.

NOTICE OF VACANCY

SECONDED NATIONAL EXPERTS TO THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION

Directorate general: Directorate: Unit: Head of Unit: Telephone: Category: Number of available post: Suggested taking up duty: Suggested initial duration: Place of secondment: Specificities:	ESTAT E ‘Sectoral and regional statistics’ E1 – Agriculture and fisheries Mr Marcel ERNENS Tel. +352 4301 34115 Administrator (AD) 1 I quarter 2015¹ 2 year(s)¹ Luxembourg This vacancy notice is opened to all Member States' candidates. Deadline for applications: 25.09.2014

1 Nature of the tasks:

Within the framework of the system of detachment set up between the European Commission and the Member States, Estat Unit E1 “Agricultural and Fisheries Statistics” is looking for an official to carry out administrative tasks for the supervision and development of data collection, data management and validation for agricultural and fisheries statistics.

He or she will follow up a number of critical projects, launched in the last few years, like the implementation of SDMX-ML format, the creation of data structure definitions (DSDs), the management of the Electronic Data files Administration and Management Information System (eDAMIS Web Forms system), the improvement of eDAMIS data collection system in general, the re-engineering of the new MDT production system as well as the harmonisation of code lists, in line with the principles of SDMX-ML standard. The production unit – in cooperation with the IT units – aims to develop a harmonized and forward data processing strategy for the domains of responsibility. Common solutions for data handling have to be sought, followed-up and controlled, by taking into account of needs of the different agricultural and fishery domains and reconciling national, international and EU approaches.

2 Main qualifications:

a) Eligibility criteria

The following eligibility criteria are to be fulfilled by the candidate in order to be seconded to the Commission. Consequently, the candidate who does not fulfil one of them will be automatically eliminated from the selection process.

- Professional experience : at least three years' experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which can be regarded as equivalent to those of function groups AD;

¹ These mentions are provided on an indicative basis only (Art.4 of the SNE Decision).

- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU official languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU official language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. An SNE from a non-member country must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one Community language necessary for the performance of his duties.

b) Selection criteria

The post requires a good knowledge of data management, in particular of web based data collections, SDMX-ML and MDT and possibly some relevant professional experience with setting up production databases. A deep understanding – from a methodological as well as from a conceptual and technical point of view – of the different agricultural and fishery domains (Animals, Crops, Prices, Economic accounts for agriculture, agricultural environmental indicators, catch, landings and aquaculture) and the Common Agricultural and Fisheries Policies is requested as well as the familiarity with project management. A high level of discipline and autonomy in carrying out the duties, good communications skills and a team spirit are also necessary.

- language(s) necessary for the performance of duties:
English essential, knowledge of French and German is an asset

3 Submission of applications and selection procedure

Candidates should send their application according to the Europass CV format (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/fr/documents/curriculum-vitae>) only to the Permanent Representation to the EU of their country, which will forward the applications to the competent services of the Commission within the deadline fixed by the latter. Not respecting this procedure or deadlines will automatically invalidate the application.

Candidates are required not to add other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage. Candidates will be informed of the follow-up of their application by the unit concerned.

4 Conditions of the secondment

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008)6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision). This decision is available on http://ec.europa.eu/civil_service/job/sne/index_en.htm.

The SNE will remain employed and remunerated by his/her employer during the secondment. He/she will equally remain covered by the national social security.

Unless for cost-free SNEs, allowances may be granted by the Commission to SNEs fulfilling the conditions provided for in Art. 17 of the SNE decision.

During the secondment, SNEs are subject to confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest obligations, as provided for in Art. 6 and 7 of the SNE Decision.

3 Submission of applications and selection procedure

Candidates should send their application according to the Europass CV format (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>) in English, French or German only to the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of their country, which will forward the applications to the competent services of the Commission within the deadline fixed by the latter. Not respecting this procedure or deadlines will automatically invalidate the application. Candidates are required not to add other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage. Candidates will be informed of the follow-up of their application by the unit concerned.

4 Conditions of the secondment

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008)6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision). This decision is available on http://ec.europa.eu/civil_service/job/sne/index_en.htm. The SNE will remain employed and remunerated by his/her employer during the secondment. He/she will equally remain covered by the national social security. Unless for cost-free SNEs, allowances may be granted by the Commission to SNEs fulfilling the conditions provided for in Art. 17 of the SNE decision. During the secondment, SNEs are subject to confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest obligations, as provided for in Art. 6 and 7 of the SNE Decision. If any document is inexact, incomplete or missing, the secondment may be cancelled.

5 Processing of personal data

The selection, secondment and termination of the secondment of a national expert requires the Commission (the competent services of DG HR, DG BUDG, PMO and the DG concerned) to process personal data concerning the person to be seconded, under the responsibility of the Head of Unit of DG HR.B2. The data processing is subject to the SNE Decision as well as the Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 18 December 2000 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by the Community institutions and bodies and on the free movement of such data.

Data is kept by the competent services for 10 years after the secondment (2 years for not selected or not seconded experts).

Data subjects may exercise their right of access to data concerning them and the right to rectify such data by applying to the controller, in accordance with Article 13 of the Regulation on the processing of personal data. The candidate may send complaints to the European Data Protection Supervisor edps@edps.europa.eu.

To the attention of candidates from third countries: your personal data can be used for necessary checks.
